CENTRAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE OF KANSAS
SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION CODE OF CHARACTER

CODE OF CHARACTER

In light of the institutional mission to provide a Christ-centered education for Character, students associated with the School of Professional Education are subject to the Central Christian College of Kansas Code of Character. It is understood that not all students may necessarily agree with the contents of the code, but submission to the code is part of the educational experience as stated in Central's mission.

- I will honor the role of the scholar by refraining from any form of academic misconduct including plagiarism, impersonation, fabrication, sabotage, cheating, and deception.
I will respect the dignity and value of each individual, recognizing that each person is created in the image of God and deserves to be treated with respect.
I will refrain from the use of alcohol, tobacco, or other related substances on the property of Central Christian College of Kansas or as a part of any program or event sponsored by Central Christian College of Kansas.

FIT-FOUR MODEL

As a student at Central Christian College of Kansas I understand that the institution approaches my education from a strategic perspective that seeks to help me develop Christian Character, through the development of a Fit Heart, Fit Mind, Fit Body, and a Fit Soul. I recognize that my participation at Central Christian College will include encounters with each aspect of myself.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to adhere to all expectations articulated in this Code of Character and Fit-Four Model. I further acknowledge that I have been made aware that my rights and responsibilities, as a student, are outlined in the Student Handbook and Catalog. My signature below demonstrates my pledge to adhere to the information therein.
