

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE OF KANSAS

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: SOCIAL SCIENCE FACULTY/CHAIR

Founded in 1884, Central Christian College of Kansas (CCC) offers a Christ-centered four-year college experience to a diverse student body (www.centralchristian.edu). The College's mission is incorporated within each of its 40 areas of study, striving to develop each student's heart, mind, soul, and strength. Located in McPherson, Kansas, on ground students enjoy easy access to a wide variety of activities and service opportunities. Beyond the traditional campus, the College's reach extends around the world through numerous online programs. CCCK is affiliated with the Free Methodist Church of North America and welcomes all students regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, disability or economic status.

The College seeks social science instructor with a record of effective teaching, creative pedagogy, and scholarly activity. The social science chair would oversee majors in psychology, health and human services, and criminal justice. This chair would oversee these majors on both on ground and online platforms. As an instructor, this individual is responsible for facilitating undergraduate courses, offering academic and career counseling, and providing oversight for practicums and internships. As chair, this individual would oversee curricula and instruction, schedules, departmental reporting, budgets, and support faculty within the department. Typical load includes 24 hours of instruction, committee assignments, advising, and other administrative duties.

Because of the mission and missional perspective of CCCK, this position's salary is in the range of $35,000, negotiable based on experience and credentials. A generous complement of benefits is offered, including health insurance, retirement plan contributions, and dependent tuition remission (on ground). Beyond those measurable benefits, CCCK is a great place to work, with dedicated faculty and staff serving with whole hearts, shaping the next generation of Christian leaders. McPherson also offers a relatively low cost of living.

The position requires acceptance and affirmation of the College's evangelical statement of faith and a lifestyle commitment. Additional requirements include:

- A minimum of a Master's Degree in the Social Science
- Experience in teaching at the collegiate level
- Proficiency in one of the social sciences: psychology, human services, or criminal justice
- Solid interpersonal skills with a variety of constituencies
- A demonstrated vital faith

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter describing their interest in the position and qualifications for this specific position, a resume or curriculum vitae, statement of faith, and the contact information for three professional references (include phone and email). All applications and nominations will be considered highly confidential.

All nominations and applications should be mailed electronically to jacob.kaufman@centralchristian.edu. A review of information submitted will begin immediately.

Central Christian College of Kansas recognizes the benefits of maintaining a diverse faculty and staff who can provide a wide spectrum of perspectives and experiences representing the creativity of a loving and innovative God. Central Christian College of Kansas reviews all applications and hires individuals based on their qualifications for the position. Therefore, the College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, parental status, or military or veteran status. As a Christian college, affiliated with the Free Methodist Church of North America, Central Christian College of Kansas asserts its right to employ persons who subscribe to the intent, mission, Statement of Faith, and Core Values of the College, as well as the lifestyle expectations articulated in the Free Methodist Book of Discipline (Para. 3000-3430; 2011).
