

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE OF KANSAS

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: DIRECTOR OF WRESTLING

Founded in 1884, Central Christian College of Kansas (CCCK) offers a Christ-centered four-year college experience to a diverse student body (www.centralchristian.edu). The College's mission is incorporated within each of its 40 areas of study, striving to develop each student's heart, mind, soul, and strength. Located in McPherson, Kansas, on ground students enjoy easy access to a wide variety of activities and service opportunities. Beyond the traditional campus, the College's reach extends around the world through numerous online programs. CCCK is affiliated with the Free Methodist Church of North America and welcomes all students regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, disability or economic status.

Central Christian College is pleased to solicit applications and nominations for the position of Director of Wrestling. Under the supervision of the Athletic Director, the Director of Wrestling is expected to recruit and retain student-athletes for both men's and women's wrestling that can be successful academically, socially and athletically at Central Christian College of Kansas, meeting a minimum roster size of twenty-seven student-athletes the first year and thirty-five students the second year; instruct and prepare the student-athletes for competition; schedule and coach intercollegiate matches and tournaments, including an active junior varsity schedule; counsel the student-athletes on academic, athletic, spiritual, and social issues; coordinate team community service; provide a connection point for outreach to the campus, alumni and the greater McPherson community. The applicant should possess proficiency in team leadership, recruiting, organization and management of athletes.

This is a staff position, serving as an exempt 12-month employee. The salary is based on credentials and experience. A generous complement of benefits is offered, including health insurance, vacation, personal time, retirement plan contributions, and tuition remission for the employee and his or her dependents. Beyond those measurable benefits, CCCK is a great place to work, with dedicated faculty and staff serving with whole hearts, shaping the next generation of Christian leaders.

The applicant should consider the mission and perspective of Central Christian College of Kansas before applying. The position requires acceptance and affirmation of the College's evangelical statement of faith and a lifestyle commitment. Additional requirements include:

- Bachelor's degree; Master's Preferred. Preference will be given to candidates that have degrees that correlate with current academic offerings of the institution.
- Quantitative experience validating coaching and recruiting
- Demonstrated ability to work cooperatively and collaboratively with college faculty, staff, administrators and personnel
- Ability to effectively communicate ideas and information in written and oral format to administrative staff, professional colleagues, technical vendors

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter describing their interest in the position and qualifications for this specific position, a resume or curriculum vitae, statement of faith, and the contact information for three professional references (include phone and email). All applications and nominations will be considered highly confidential.

All nominations and applications should be mailed electronically to kyle.moody@centralchristian.edu. The position will remain open until filled.

Central Christian College of Kansas recognizes the benefits of maintaining a diverse faculty and staff who can provide a wide spectrum of perspectives and experiences representing the creativity of a loving and innovative God.
