

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE OF KANSAS

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: CHAIR OF BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Founded in 1884, Central Christian College of Kansas (CCK) offers a Christ-centered four-year college experience to a diverse student body (www.centralchristian.edu). The College's mission is incorporated within each of its 40 areas of study, striving to develop each student's heart, mind, soul, and strength. Located in McPherson, Kansas, on ground students enjoy easy access to a wide variety of activities and service opportunities. Beyond the traditional campus, the College's reach extends around the world through numerous online programs. CCK is affiliated with the Free Methodist Church of North America and welcomes all students regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, disability or economic status.

Central Christian College is pleased to solicit applications and nominations for the position of Chair of the Business Department. Under the supervision of the Chief Academic Officer, the Chair of the Business Department provides academic and administrative leadership to the graduate and undergraduate programs associated with the Business Department; including Residential, Dual-Credit, Online, and Professional modalities. Primary focus is on expansion and promotion of innovative undergraduate and graduate programs, in alignment with the vision and mission of the College, its Wesleyan heritage, and the Core Values of the institution. Duties and responsibilities will include: Teaching & Advising (60%), Administrative (25%), and Service & Professional Development (15%).

This is a faculty position, serving as an exempt salaried, full time 12 month faculty member. The salary is based on credentials and experience. A generous complement of benefits is offered, including health insurance, vacation, personal time, retirement plan contributions, and tuition remission for the employee and his or her dependents. Beyond those measurable benefits, CCK is a great place to work, with dedicated faculty and staff serving with whole hearts, shaping the next generation of Christian leaders.

The applicant should consider the missional perspective of the College, before applying. The position requires acceptance and affirmation of the College's evangelical statement of faith and a lifestyle commitment. Additional requirements include:

- Doctorate in business, management, or other related field.
- Proven history of strong, decisive, and collaborative leadership working with faculty, students, staff, administrators, and external stakeholders
- Experience leading and supporting multiple modalities
- Provide oversight and fiscal responsibility relative to departmental or college budget management
- The ability to foster a culture of trust, transparency, and collegiality
- High-level interpersonal skills for communication, consultation, and collaboration
- Experience working with and mentoring faculty and effectively working across diverse groups of faculty, staff and students

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter describing their interest in the position and qualifications for this specific position, a resume or curriculum vitae, statement of faith, and the contact information for two professional references and one character reference (include phone and email). All applications and nominations will be considered highly confidential. All nominations and applications should be mailed electronically to katherine.potter@centralchristian.edu. The position will remain open until filled.

Central Christian College of Kansas recognizes the benefits of maintaining a diverse faculty and staff who can provide a wide spectrum of perspectives and experiences representing the creativity of a loving and innovative God.
