

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE OF KANSAS

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: ENGLISH INSTRUCTOR

VISION, MISSION, AND PURPOSE

Central Christian College of Kansas is a mission driven institution committed to providing a Christ-Centered Education for Character. As such, Central Christian seeks like-minded individuals, committed to Christian Service and Discipleship, in order to sustain a campus community focused on our vision to provide a transformative educational experience, rooted in Christ, to any person desiring to become a faithful steward of heart, mind, soul, and strength.

Founded in 1884, Central Christian College of Kansas maintains a residential program in McPherson, Kansas, though its mission extends much further through its online and graduate programs. CCKK is affiliated with the Free Methodist Church of North America and welcomes all students regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, disability or economic status. In the same way, Central Christian recognizes the benefits of maintaining a diverse faculty and staff, representing the creativity of a loving and innovative God, and who can provide a wide spectrum of perspectives and experiences. We specifically encourage inquiries from candidates from racial and ethnic backgrounds that are currently underrepresented on our faculty and staff.

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION

Central Christian College is pleased to solicit applications and nominations for the position of English Instructor. Under the supervision of the Chief Academic Officer, the English Instructor is expected to teach all required English courses. Beyond teaching the traditional English Composition courses; British and American Literature courses are emphasized along with other genres. Additionally, provides oversight to the Writing Center which will include assistance and support directly to students to strengthen reading comprehension and APA instruction, while assisting students with academic, professional, and creative writing skills.

This individual is responsible for participating in appropriate committees, overseeing division lectureships, and participating in faculty-related assignments. Specific teaching responsibilities include facilitating coursework in the social sciences, with a specific emphasis on facilitating students to meet general education requirements. The average teaching load for faculty is equivalent to 24 semester credit hours of instruction, in organized residential classes, each nine-month academic year, in addition to advising and institutional service.

Salary is commensurate with credentials and experience in teaching. A generous complement of benefits is offered, including health insurance, retirement plan contributions, and dependent tuition remission (on ground). Beyond those measurable benefits, CCKK is a great place to work, with dedicated faculty and staff serving with whole hearts, shaping the next generation of Christian leaders. McPherson also offers a relatively low cost of living.

As a member of the Association of Free Methodist Educational Institutions and recognizing that College's commitment to its vision and mission, all employees are required to affirm of the College's evangelical statement of faith and lifestyle expectations. The applicant should consider the missional perspective of the College, before applying (<https://www.centralchristian.edu/about/>).

Additional requirements include:

- An advanced degree in English or related degree
- Experience in teaching at the collegiate level
- Vibrant faith, with a commitment to evangelism and discipleship.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter describing their interest in the position and qualifications for this specific position, a resume or curriculum vitae, statement of faith, and the contact information for two professional references and one character reference (include phone and email). All applications and nominations will be considered highly confidential. All nominations and applications should be mailed electronically to katherine.potter@centralchristian.edu. The position will remain open until filled.

Central Christian College of Kansas reviews all applications and hires individuals based on their qualifications for the position. Therefore, the College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, parental status, or military or veteran status. As a Christian college, affiliated with the Free Methodist Church of North America, Central Christian College of Kansas asserts its right to employ persons who subscribe to the intent, mission, Statement of Faith, and Core Values of the College, as well as the lifestyle expectations articulated in the Free Methodist Book of Discipline (Para. 3000-3430; 2011).