- Prepare, deliver, and organize devotional homilies and prayer for course meeting times
- Deliver, in a student receptive manner, the knowledge, skills, and experiences needed to successfully achieve course learning outcomes (12 hours teaching load/semester)

- Create, post, and articulate course learning outcomes or objectives in order to ensure student understanding of expectations (e.g., syllabus, course schedule, outcomes, etc.)
- Create course curriculum, course handouts, lectures, labs, presentations, and other course materials required to deliver course information in an understandable and interesting manner
- Create course rubrics in order to reliably assess student performance related to the learning objectives and to identify areas for improvement
- Assist students by being available through “office hours” and other times to answer questions and assist students to better understand the material in one-on-one or group sessions
- Assign grades and maintain course/student records in accordance with FERPA regulations and submit grades and records by established deadlines
- Assist advisees to develop educational and career goals, and to seek the information necessary to achieve those goals
- Assist advisees in the completion of graduation requirements in the most cost effective and efficient manner
- Meet regularly with advisees to review educational, graduation, and career progress
- Provide academic mentorship and aid the spiritual formation of students in alignment with the faith heritage of the College
- Facilitate internships and practicum

ADMINISTRATIVE: (15%)

- Assist the department and College to recruit, enroll, and retain students who are a good fit for our culture, mission, and vision
- Administer appropriate assessment protocol, recoding data and using data to inform departmental and campus enhancements
- Review, evaluate, and revise department policy, textbooks, course materials, delivery methods and curriculum in conjunction with other department members in order to enhance student academic and career success as environments change
- Lead program efforts for student recruitment, marketing, and promotion of departmental offerings (graduate and undergraduate)
- Coordinate opportunities for alumni and friends to remain connected to the department
- Coordinate the development of the departmental course schedule and program budget recommendations
- Attend appropriate committee meetings, departmental meetings, and other governance related meetings, as required by the position
- Attend all required college events such as commencement, faculty meetings, in-service workshops, etc.
- Perform other appropriate and reasonably required duties as assigned by your supervisor

SERVICE & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (15%):

- Embody and model a growing spiritual walk in alignment with the Christian faith and the basic beliefs, tenants, and values of the institution

- Enhance expertise by reading, conducting research, attending seminars, webinars, workshops, and classes for self-improvement and/or professional enhancement
- Sustain active attendance at Chapel, Convocations, and other College related colloquia
- Maintain membership and involvement in relevant professional organizations
- Ensure compliance with regulatory requirements, including licensure and/or accreditation
- Be active in denominational, community, and other field related organizations
- Cultivate personal and student involvement in church, civic, club, and other service organizations and opportunities

SKILLS

- The ability to foster a culture of trust, transparency, and collegiality
- Presence of high-level interpersonal skills for communication, consultation, and collaboration
- Manifest, by daily example, the highest Christian virtue, serving as a Christian role model (1 Timothy 4:12) in attitude, speech, and actions
- Attend a local body of believers who align with the College’s Statement of Beliefs
