

SCHOLARSHIP DRAWING

LeAnn Moore, CFO, is proposing to the College Council the use of up to four $500 scholarships to use for a drawing for those returners who get all of their registration done for 2023-24 by a date that the Financial Aid Director identifies. Registration completed would include registration in classes, financial aid completed, payment plan set up if needed, housing selected, and any other items that the main offices determine to be necessary.