

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE OF KANSAS

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: BUSINESS (CHAIR)

VISION, MISSION, AND PURPOSE

Central Christian College of Kansas is a mission driven institution committed to providing a Christ-Centered Education for Character. As such, Central Christian seeks like-minded individuals, committed to Christian Service and Discipleship, in order to sustain a campus community focused on our vision to provide a transformative educational experience, rooted in Christ, to any person desiring to become a faithful steward of heart, mind, soul, and strength.

Founded in 1884, Central Christian College of Kansas maintains a residential program in McPherson, Kansas, though its mission extends much further through its online and graduate programs. CCKK is affiliated with the Free Methodist Church of North America and welcomes all students regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, disability or economic status. In the same way, Central Christian recognizes the benefits of maintaining a diverse faculty and staff, representing the creativity of a loving and innovative God, and who can provide a wide spectrum of perspectives and experiences. We specifically encourage inquiries from candidates from racial and ethnic backgrounds that are currently underrepresented on our faculty and staff.

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION

Under the supervision of the Chief Academic Officer, the Chair of the Business Department provides oversight to the Business Department, which includes undergraduate and graduate programming in Business, Accounting, and Strategic Leadership. As Chair, the incumbent is responsible for administering the department's resources; assessing and revising curriculum (in multiple modalities); representing the department; providing instruction; participating on appropriate committees, overseeing departmental lectureships, and participating in other faculty related assignments. Instructors at Central Christian College of Kansas are life-long learners who also serve as content specialists with pedagogical skills appropriate for the collegiate learning environment. Aligned with this role, instructors also are expected to serve as models and mentors, ministering to students in alignment with our Wesleyan heritage, mission, and purpose.

This is NOT a hybrid or remote position.

Salary is commensurate with credentials and experience in teaching. A generous complement of benefits is offered, including health insurance, retirement plan contributions, and dependent tuition remission (on ground). Beyond those measurable benefits, CCKK is a great place to work, with dedicated faculty and staff serving with whole hearts, shaping the next generation of Christian leaders. McPherson also offers a relatively low cost of living.

As a member of the Association of Free Methodist Educational Institutions and recognizing that College's commitment to its vision and mission, all employees are required to affirm of the College's evangelical statement of faith and lifestyle expectations. The applicant should consider the missional perspective of the College, before applying (<https://www.centralchristian.edu/about/>).

Additional requirements include:

- Doctorate in Business, Management, or other related field, with at least 18 graduate level hours in Strategic Leadership, Leadership, or Management.
- Testimony validating a saving faith in Jesus Christ and a growing awareness of His Lordship (John 3:3, 1 Peter 1:23), illustrated through the daily practice of Christian virtue and willingness to serve as a Christian role model (1 Timothy 4:12) in attitude, speech, and actions.
- Proven history of strong, decisive, and collaborative leadership working with faculty, students, staff, administrators, and external stakeholders
- Experience working with and mentoring and working across diverse groups of faculty, staff and students

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter describing their interest in the position and qualifications for this specific position, a resume or curriculum vitae, statement of faith, and the contact information for two professional references and one character reference (include phone and email). All applications and nominations will be considered highly confidential. All nominations and applications should be mailed electronically to katherine.potter@centralchristian.edu. The position will remain open until filled.
